Life Together

I recently signed up for a clergy renewal retreat in Carefree Arizona at the end of April. I will be gathering with other clergy, mostly from the West Coast for some post-Easter reflection and renewal. We will eat meals together, worship, take time for hiking and playing, and have a formal time of education each evening. And for those who know me, I will be bringing my golf clubs as part of this spiritual retreat. That reminds me, in 2018, I took my golf clubs to Scotland for a sabbatical and was blessed to play St. Andrews Old Course two days in a row. My lowest score of the two days was 80. You're darn right I am bragging. (See picture on next page.) This year, the Open Championship (British Open) will be played at St. Andrews in July. I can't wait to watch on TV... my ticket request did not come through in the ticket lottery.

But in the meantime, I have rediscovered the joy of reading as a way to prepare for the retreat. One of my colleagues and best friends, Pastor Andrew Wendle, is our retreat leader. He has given us four books to read about the post-quarantine church and a biography. He had the honor of being Eugene Peterson's pastor at the end of his life near Flathead Lake in Montana. Eugene Peterson is the person who translated the scriptures into "The Message". It is translated into accessible language for the everyday person. We often use it as a comparison point in many of the Bible studies I do. One of the books Andy is having us read is Eugene Peterson's authorized biography. I am fascinated with all the twists and turns so far... decision points in life... and how the Holy Spirit guided Eugene and his wife Jan throughout the years.

Eugene spent much of his professional life as a Presbyterian pastor in Maryland. He grew up Pentecostal and encountered many heavy hitters in theology and Christianity in America through his studies in New York and Baltimore. But for Eugene, ministry has always been relational. He was the son of a butcher and Pentecostal woman preacher.

For Peterson, ministry meant visiting homes and businesses of members to see what they were dealing with that week as he prepared for his sermons. Over a cup of coffee and listening, his sermons were always contextual and hit home. As an intern supervisor for several years, I can relate. I always told my students, "When in doubt, get out." The means, get out and visit one of the saints of the congregation. Or go out and volunteer somewhere. Get out. Find people on the margins of life and spend time with them. There you will meet God face to face in God's beautiful creation.

I long to be with all of you without a mask on... to see your smiling and/or tear-soaked faces. I have always tried to practice relational ministry. But the pandemic has really slowed that down. However, I am enjoying playing pickle ball in our gym on Sundays. I have enjoyed golfing with some members and friends on Thursday mornings in the good weather. I love visiting your businesses, schools, concerts, sporting events. I enjoy a good cup of coffee. In my first call. I loved learning how to drive a tractor for the wheat harvest. The Erickson family trained me and trusted me to drive a big John Deere tractor with a grain cart behind it as I drove alongside the combine as they unloaded on the fly. I would then empty the grain cart into the semi-trailer. One week-end the community harvested a field for a family that suffered a tragedy. This was real ministry to me.

I hope for many good years of relational ministry among all of you. I am already feeling renewed by reading books even before my retreat begins.

Have a blessed Epiphany season (I should have had a V-8 season in the church). May God reveal Godself to you in the most earthy and ordinary ways.

Peace,
Pastor Jon Strasman

Family Sunday School

Andrea Long and Pastor Jon are doing an online family Sunday School every 2nd and 4th week, and one low commitment activity on the opposite weeks for families to plug into. The completed videos are now live on our website and You Tube channel. Check them out!

Our goal is to stay connected to our families during this time and ramp up once the pandemic allows us to bring back more programming.

Confirmation

Confirmation continues in February on Wednesdays at 5:30.

Beginning in March when mid-week Lenten services begin, we will not have Confirmation on Wednesdays. However, students are still required to attend services as part of their confirmation requirement.

We are currently setting up the Remind app for confirmation communication. If you get an invite, please respond. We hope to coordinate acolytes this way. Speaking of acolytes, we currently have a number of openings for help during worship. Please sign up in the lobby on the sheets by the nursery, or contact officemanager@our-saviors.org, or respond to the Remind app.

Students are required to complete 10 Sermon Notes by May. In January we will have a spreadsheet available for students to see their progress.

Altar Flowers

The 2022 Altar Flower sign-up sheet is up in the gathering area. Please note there has been a slight price increase this year to add body and variety to our arrangements. Keep in mind that flower is just a suggestion; plants and succulents are also available. That being said, there is a check box on the bottom of the envelopes which you can choose to donate your arrangement. Our homebound ministry has members and friends who have enjoyed receiving these in the past.

“God’s Work. Our Hands” - Yes, YOU can make a difference! Here are some opportunities to share God’s love in our community.

New Mission Outreach Team

Our synod bishop, Anne, has nominated our congregation to form a “Good Neighbor Team” to walk alongside a newly arrived Afghanistan refugee family to the Fox Valley. After discussion with our church council and the Serve and Reach team, Our Savior’s will be taking on this project.

We need to form a Good Neighbor Team of 6-8 people from the congregation to work with World Relief Fox Valley to gather household items and furniture, help facilitate transportation for needed appointments, walk with the family as they learn the culture (groceries, public transportation, basic English), invest in long-term friendships, and potential financial support. This is a six-month commitment for the church. It will involve weekly visits to the refugee family.

Rich and Pam Garman have already stepped forward to lead the team. Contact Rich or Pam directly or Pastor Jon to be vetted as we begin to form this team. Let us know if you are interested in being on the team or are willing to support from behind the scenes.

Items Needed for Good Neighbor Apartment

We have already begun collecting items for our new refugee family who will soon be coming to our community. All items can be gently used/excellent condition EXCEPT bedding, which must be new. Bed sizes are double or twin. Please contact Andrea in the office at church if you have items to donate. She will be keeping a master list of donations and can let you know what is still needed. Here is a partial list of requested items:

- Kitchen table and chairs
- Dressers
- Silverware/silverware tray
- Plates & bowls
- Cups & mugs

Food on the Fourth (Tuesday-Thursday)

This year we are initiating Food on the Fourth (Tuesdays & Thursdays that is!) Our congregation will be providing and serving meals on the fourth Tuesdays and Thursdays of every even month to 120+ persons from both the Fox Valley Community Table (FVCT) and the Pillars Adult Shelter. Watch for a link to Sign- Up- Genius to sign up to volunteer in February. If you would rather call Andrea, the office manager at church, you may do so. The first Food on the Fourth will be February 22 for FVCT and February 24 for Pillars.

Food on the Fourth Matching Funds Challenge Update

A Huge Thank You to our Musicians

Over the past two years, the appearance and ever-changing Covid-19, has caused us to change service times and set up on-line services which requires song leaders. With that, Joyful Noise evolved into a very dedicated group of song leaders.

In the beginning, on-line services were pre-recorded. When in-person services resumed, the services were live-streamed. For all the services, plexiglass panels (made by Chris Swender) were set up to keep musicians physically distanced, masks were worn, and rehearsals were limited to about 15 minutes, immediately prior to the service. Services had one or two song leaders, a keyboardist and when possible, guitar, violin, or percussion. Our song leaders for Thanksgiving and Mid-week Advent services were challenged to learn new liturgies and spent many hours in separate rehearsals.

Our Savior's is also blessed with individuals that prepared and recorded special musical selections for use in our services. If you see any of these people, please take time to thank them for their dedication and continued efforts to bring music to Our Savior's:

Instrumentalists: Emily Pockat - violin, Bryan Gilbertson – guitar, Ardy Kreuter – percussion, LuAnn Stensberg - keyboard.

Song Leaders/Vocalists: Claudia Bjornstad, Sarah Bjornstad, Kristin Curtis, Sue Englebert, Pam Garman, Kim Jannusch, Sue Kueck, Vicki Meinke, and Izzy Ricketts.

Special Music: Annika Strasman; Ben, Jacob, Samantha, Jerry and Lynda Lockner; Graham, Owen, Norah and Brooke Bradley; Martin Haanstad; Andrew Schaller; Joyous Ringers; Chancel Choir; Andy Pokel; Elise Pokel; Chris Dieck-Hilgas; Jon Strasman; Sam Hartman (the late); Patrick Hartman; Tom Berven and the MacDowell Male Chorus.

Thank you all so much! We could not do this without all of you!

Looking for Lay Worship Assistants

In order to include more people in worship leadership, we are still looking for lay worship assistants to help at each service. This could include people who have gone to the Lay School of Theology in our Synod or anyone who has an interest in worship leadership.

Let Andrea Long in our office know if you are interested. Pastor Jon will continue training in February and set up a schedule for helpers.

Lay worship assistants will help with worship set-up, leading liturgy, the prayers of the people, and helping with the logistics of worship. Please consider this if you want to grow in your serving.

Thank You!

A big thank you to Chris Swender, Cheryl Timm, Diane Wilfling, Martin Haanstad, and Ardy Kreuter for un-decorating the church. It went pretty fast! We appreciate your help!!

Council Minutes...

January 11th, 2022 – 7:00 p.m.

Pastor's Report:

- Gospel of John Bible Study on Sundays at 10 AM after worship. We are currently on chapter 5 of 20. People can come and go as their schedule allows.
- I participated in Pickleball in our Gym organized by Joan Terry on Sunday, January 9. It is a riot. Check it out.
- I am planning to go on a clergy renewal retreat at "Spirit in the Desert" retreat center April 25-30. This will be a post-Easter retreat with colleagues that will involve devotions, worship, food, golf, and hiking. This is part of my 2 weeks of continuing education I receive each year.
- I need to form a Mutual Ministry Committee that works with me as a sounding board, to keep me healthy, and to help guide decision making as a pastor.
- I am helping Andrea with the online version of Family Sunday School.

We have been asked through the Bishop's office to form a team to accompany one Afghan family who will be relocating to the Fox Valley. Pam and Rich Garman are already interested. It is through an organization called World Relief Fox Valley.

Discussion: Fox Valley World Relief - Good Neighbor Teams

Rich and Pam Garman are taking a lead from our congregation on this opportunity.

Discussion: Continue in Person Services or switch to Virtual Only Services?

- Concerns over limited participants in worship over the January 8th/9th Weekend.
- Discussed potential request of congregation wear N95 mask if you are attending service.

Pastor still feels very comfortable and safe while leading service.
